Dear Residents of Maple Valley,

I am pleased to present you with Maple Valley's 2007 Annual Police Service Highlights & Data Report. This report is a snapshot of our efforts to provide excellent police services to the residents and visitors of our city. This year, the format of the report, as well as its name, has been updated to make the information and data more user-friendly and accessible. You can read more about the report's update and contents in the "About the Annual Police Service Highlights & Data Report" section.

The Maple Valley Police Department continues to work in partnership with our citizens in order to ensure safety and security in our community. The Police Department consists of eight patrol officers, one community police/storefront officer, one police chief, detective services, and administrative support through the King County Sheriff's Office. In addition, we have a police civilian assistant at our front office to assist with community support and administrative police services. We also benefit by receiving additional Sheriff's Office support such as air support from Guardian One (the Sheriff's Office helicopter), drug enforcement, marine unit patrols, 9-1-1 communication services and major crimes investigative support.

Please pay special attention to the section in this report dedicated to "Community Policing and Problem Solving Projects/Programs." The Maple Valley Police Department is dedicated to Community-Oriented Policing (COP) and one of the key components of COP is problem solving. We have adopted structured problem solving techniques as a consistent way of addressing crime and safety issues in the city. We are using crime analysis information available to us through technology services to concentrate our efforts where they are needed the most.

Maple Valley Police are dedicated to being responsive to residents' needs and requests. To report a crime, accident, or suspicious activity, 24 hours a day, call 9-1-1 (emergency) or (206) 296-3311 (non emergency).

You can help us in our crime fighting efforts. We offer vacation house checks, speed checks and Neighborhood Watch programs. More information on these programs is available on our web site at www.ci.maple-valley.wa.us.

If you have any questions about this report or our services, please visit me at City Hall, phone me at (425) 413-5158, or e-mail me at michelle.bennett@kingcounty.gov.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve you.

Respectfully Submitted,

Michelle Bennett, Chief of Police

Maple Valley's Crime Rate

The Crime Rate is a calculation of the number of Part I Crimes divided by population in thousands. Part I Crimes is a category of crimes established by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). It includes criminal homicide (which includes murder and non-negligent manslaughter, but excludes deaths by negligence, attempts to kill, suicides, accidental deaths, justifiable homicide, and traffic fatalities), forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny-theft, motor vehicle theft, and arson.

Source: Police Services Data

Part I Violent Crimes against People

Part I Crimes include crimes categorized as “violent crimes” or “crimes against people.” The following are Maple Valley’s Part I Violent Crimes.

Murder

Source for all below: Police Services Data

Murder

The following situations are not included in this crime classification: deaths caused by negligence, suicide, or accident; justifiable homicides; and attempts to murder or assaults to murder, which are counted as aggravated assaults.

Rape

Rape

Rapes by force and attempts or assaults to rape, regardless of the age of the victim, are included in this count. Statutory offenses (no force used—victim under age of consent) are excluded.

Aggravated Assault

Aggravated Assault

Aggravated assault is an unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

Robbery

Robbery

Robbery is the taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person by force, threat of force, violence, or by putting the victim in fear.

Part I Non-Violent Crimes against Property

The second group of Part I Crimes is known as “non-violent crimes,” “crimes against property,” or “property crimes.” The following are Maple Valley’s Part I Crimes against Property. Information about vehicle theft, also included in this category, can be found with traffic and automobile incident information.

Arson

Arson is any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, or personal property of another.

Source for all below: Police Services Data

Burglary (breaking or entering)

Burglary is the unlawful entry of a commercial or residential structure with the intent to commit a crime. Attempted forcible entry is included.

Larceny (except vehicles)

Larceny is the unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property of any value amount from the possession or constructive possession of another. Examples are thefts of bicycles, motor vehicle parts and accessories, shoplifting, pocket-picking, or the stealing of any property or article that is not taken by force and violence or by fraud. Attempted larcenies are included. Embezzlement, forgery, check fraud, and like crimes are excluded.

Traffic and Automobile Incident Information

Vehicle theft

Vehicle theft is included in Part I Crimes against Property. It is the theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle, which is defined as being self-propelled and running on a land surface and not on rails.

Source: Police Services Data

Citizen Traffic Complaints

Citizen traffic complaints include all reports residents make regarding chronic traffic violations and requests for traffic enforcement. Complaints are assigned out to specific traffic enforcement units as well as patrol and are worked on a regular basis. Some complaints are resolved relatively quickly, while others become the site of on-going traffic enforcement projects.

Traffic Citations

Traffic citations include reports of all moving/hazardous violations (such as all accidents, driving under the influence, speeding, and reckless driving), and non-moving compliance violations (such as defective equipment and parking violations).

This data is not made available by the State of Washington Courts System until April following the year reported. This data will be added to this report and will be made available to the city as soon as possible.

Citation: Often called a "ticket," a citation is a written document issued to a person who commits a crime or violates a law. The citation describes the crime and/or the law that has been violated and identifies the punishment that has been standardized by the court system (i.e., the standardized monetary amounts payable for traffic violations). While citations prescribe a penalty for a crime, they may be challenged through the court system. They usually include instructions for the cited person to appeal the citation. A citation may include multiple violations.

Part I & II Cases Closed by Arrest

The cases below represent incidents where an officer or detective has recommended that the King County Prosecutor's Office file criminal charges against the case suspect. These criminal charges may result in an arrest or another form of punitive action, such as a citation. A prosecuting attorney is solely responsible for the decision to formally file charges and prosecute defendants.

Adult and Juvenile Charges and Arrests

One or more charges can result from a single arrest. Charges also can be filed when probable cause exists against a person who may not have been arrested. The following are the total number of felony and misdemeanor charges and arrests by adult and juvenile status.

Calls for Police Assistance

The public receives police assistance in a variety of ways. People can call the Emergency 911 Communications Center to have one or more officers dispatched to the field, called a "dispatched call for service." The public can also be assisted when an officer witnesses or "on-views" an accident, crime, or other police need in the field.

In addition to dispatched calls for service and on-views, 911 center operators can take certain types of reports over the phone through alternative call handling (ACH). This allows police officers more time to respond to those who need an officer present at the location of their incident.

Following are the numbers of dispatched calls for service (DCFS), on-views, and alternative call handling (ACH) incidents reported.

Source for all below: Police Services Data and CAD

Dispatched Calls For Service (DCFS): The number of DCFS shown here includes calls that are verified to take place inside the city limits and that are charged to the city as part of its police contract. Total DCFS counts, as shown in the Police Service Data section, may be slightly higher (usually less than 5 percent higher).

Response Times to High Priority Calls

When calls for police assistance are received by the Emergency 911 Communications Center, they are entered into the Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) system and given a "priority" based on the criteria described below. If the call receiver is in doubt as to the appropriate priority, the call is assigned the higher of the two priority designators in question.

"Priority X" designates critical dispatches. These are incidents that pose an obvious danger to the life of an officer or citizen. It is used for felony crimes in-progress where the possibility of confrontation between a victim and suspect exists. Examples include shootings, stabbings, robberies or burglaries.

"Priority 1" designates immediate dispatches. These are calls that require immediate police action. Examples include silent alarms, injury traffic accidents, in-progress crimes or crimes so recent that the suspect may still be in the immediate area.

"Priority 2" designates prompt dispatches. These are calls that could escalate to a more serious degree if not policed quickly. Examples include verbal disturbances and blocking traffic accidents.

Following are the City of Maple Valley's Police response times for the above priority calls. Response times include all time from the receipt of a phone call to the moment an officer arrives at the location of the incident.

Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD): A computerized communication system used by emergency response agencies for dispatching and tracking calls for emergency assistance.

Commissioned Officers per 1,000 Residents

Commissioned officers per 1,000 residents shows how many commissioned police officers are employed by Maple Valley for every 1,000 residents. This number includes commissioned officers who work in supervisory or other non-patrol related positions as well as special services officers who work part-time for the city. It does not include professional (i.e. non-commissioned) support staff.

Source: KCSO Contracts Unit

Dispatched Calls for Service (DCFS) per Patrol Officer

Dispatched calls for service (DCFS) per patrol officer is the average number of dispatched calls one patrol officer responds to within a year. This number uses only dispatched calls Maple Valley pays for and does not include the number of responses an officer initiates (such as witnessing and responding to traffic violations, called "on views"). Also, the numbers below are patrol only and exclude non-patrol commissioned officers (such as supervisors or special duty officers/detectives).

Costs of Police Services per Capita

The City of Maple Valley contracts with the King County Sheriff's Office (KCSO) for police services. Among other benefits, contracting for services from a larger law enforcement agency allows for cost savings through "economies of scale." Specific economies of scale provided through the contract with KCSO include:

- Mutual aid agreements with other law enforcement agencies in Washington State
- A large pool of officers if back-up help is necessary
- Coverage if city officers are away
- Expertise of specialized units to assist officers
- More experienced officers to select from for city staffing
- Cost sharing throughout the department to keep city costs down

Costs for police services vary depending on a city's resources and the level and type of police services the community wants. The City of Maple Valley may have additional funds or expenditures for special projects or programs as part of the city's law enforcement budget. These additional costs are not reflected in the contract cost per capita, which shows the contract cost for police services divided by Maple Valley's population.

Cost per $1,000 of assessed real property value shows Maple Valley's contract cost in relationship to the property values of Maple Valley.

Complaints against Officers

Complaints against city police officers can originate from the public or internal police department personnel. When a complaint is made, the King County Sheriff's Office Internal Investigations Unit (IIU), which reports directly to the Sheriff, will review the complaint and determine whether a formal complaint investigation should be made. The following are the total number of internal and external complaints that were formally investigated for City of Maple Valley officers:

	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007
Number of Complaints	0	1	3	0	1
Number of Police Contacts (DCFS & Self-initiated "On-View" Police Contacts)	7,527	6,546	6,305	6,338	5,730

Public Communication Efforts

We enjoyed another year of the Bike Safety Rodeo and Bike Challenge events. The Challenge and the Rodeo were both presented in a fun way, leaving the children and their parents with a better understanding of the rules and safety guidelines of riding a bicycle.

Storefront Officer Sheryl Vanderwalker distributed informative Neighborhood Watch and Business Watch crime statistics within her "On Target" monthly newsletter. The newsletters give brief details in crime statistics as well as helpful tips specifically for citizens and business owners and managers to help prevent crime.

The City of Maple Valley and its surrounding neighborhood communities have suffered several tragic infant/child incidents over the last several years. The Maple Valley Police Department is dedicated to helping to keep all children safe. We have implemented a new program, KidSafe, to assist us in our safety goal. This program is intended to aid anyone who cares for children by providing important safety information and resources. Storefront Officer Sheryl Vanderwalker will present the program to any interested organization.

The Maple Valley Police now offers child safety seat checks for local parents and caregivers. Our Storefront Officer Sheryl Vanderwalker and Administrative Assistant Robin Larsen provide education and hands-on assistance regarding the proper use of child restraint systems and safety belts as trained Child Passenger Safety Technicians. Please contact the police office to make an appointment.

Mentioned newsletters and highlights can also be found on our website: www.ci.maple-valley.wa.us/police.

Community Policing and Problem Solving Projects/Programs

A Community Oriented Policing (COP) effort new to Maple Valley this year was the start of a Citizens' Academy. The Maple Valley Police Department, in collaboration with the King County Sheriff's Office, hosted the academy in order to increase the understanding between citizens and their police department through an exchange of information and education. Upon completion of the academy, graduates gained a better understanding of the law enforcement role in the criminal justice system, and an appreciation for the many challenges facing law enforcement in today's complex society. In addition, the experience provided a forum for police-community interaction and helped identify community problems, needs, and concerns.

The Maple Valley Police/King County Sheriff's Office Explorer Program has been a huge success and continues to actively serve our community in many ways. The Explorers enthusiastically volunteer their time at every Maple Valley community event. This is a volunteer program designed for individuals between the ages of 14 and 21, who are interested in investigating a career in the field of law enforcement.

We are honored to include our Volunteer Program as one of our community policing initiatives. In an effort to integrate citizen participation into the community policing model, we have adopted a formalized volunteer program. Our program allows community members, as well as students seeking practicum experiences, to contribute to the betterment of the community.

Our volunteers are our primary force in providing quality services for the community and help to enhance the problem solving efforts of the police. Volunteers assist in extending and expanding the scope of existing staff positions by providing skills, expertise, ideas, objective viewpoints and much needed manpower. The City of Maple Valley recognizes that volunteers enhance our existing work force and help to promote a closer relationship between the community and the Police Department.

The Communities That Care Coalition and Maple Valley Police organized and hosted a Drug Prevention & Intervention Summit. Drug education materials, training regarding identifying drug materials and effects, and testimonials from parents and students were presented. A question and answer session followed featuring school representatives, police, county prosecutor's staff, doctors and counselors. The topics discussed included intervention, prevention, what to do if you suspect your child is using drugs, and how to obtain and use inexpensive home drug-testing kits.

Finally, in an effort to keep our streets safe and address specific concerns from our citizens, the Street of the Week program continues to benefit our community. Each week, officers concentrate their traffic enforcement on a different street located within the city. The Street of the Week information is published in a local newspaper and is available on our website for public viewing.

Crime Prevention Efforts

Neighborhood Watch groups have proven to reduce crime and the fear of crime in their neighborhoods. Your police department is very interested in building awareness and support in Neighborhood Watch programs in our city. If you are presently involved in one of our programs, the Police Department thanks you for your participation and your work in joining with your neighbors to fight crime. If you are not involved in the program and would like assistance in getting your neighborhood involved in a Neighborhood Watch, I encourage you to call us for assistance.

This year we hosted the 23rd Annual National Night Out (NNO) at Lake Wilderness Park. The Police Department provided free food and drinks for the event and neighborhood groups were encouraged to bring their favorite dish. NNO has proven to be an effective, inexpensive and enjoyable program to promote neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships in our fight for a safer community. The benefits Maple Valley will derive from NNO will most certainly extend well beyond the one night.

City Cost Comparison

The city cost comparison study is conducted annually by the King County Sheriff's Office Contracts Unit. The study accounts for city budget differences and may factor in (or factor out) certain line items in an effort to allow for "apples-to-apples" comparison between cities. Cities that provided only partial information for this study are not included below.

Maple Valley's cost per capita shown here is different than the contract cost per capita, which only includes law enforcement contract costs paid to the county. The following budget information is obtained directly from the city's budget, which includes additional funding for extra police services.

NOTES:

The data on this page includes the domestic violence data listed on page 26. Page 26 refers to domestic violence data only.

*A more detailed section of these categories is listed on page 30.

The number of DCFS (Dispatched Calls for Service) shown here includes all calls recorded by the Emergency 911 Communications Center as being city calls. However, this number may be slightly higher than the number of DCFS shown in the Police Service Highlights section, which reports only those calls that are verified to take place inside the city limits and are charged to the city as part of its police contract. Actual DCFS counts shown here are usually less than 5 percent higher.

Glossary of Terms

Adult Arrests

An arrest is counted every time an adult is cited for a criminal offense or booked. More specifically:

1. It includes all adult bookings, plus
2. All adult citations which are classified as criminal non-traffic.
3. When an adult is both cited and booked, it is only counted once.

Cases Cleared /Clearance

The solving of an offense by arrest, or in some circumstances, by exceptional means (the suspect died, is imprisoned on another charge, victim refuses to testify, etc.).

Cleared by Arrest:

A case can be closed by arrest when at least one suspect is positively identified and charges are recommended to the Prosecuting Attorney's Office. This closure does not require physical booking into a jail or juvenile detention facility. It also does not require the charging of all suspects, if there are multiple suspects in the crime. This category includes criminal citations into district and municipal courts for misdemeanors and felony filings into Superior Court, as well as all filings into Juvenile Court.

Exceptional Clearance:

A case can be closed "exceptional" if it can be established that a crime has been committed and the identity of a suspect is positively confirmed, but due to circumstances beyond our control, no charges are filed. An example of this type of closure is a case in which the victim declines to assist in prosecution. Another example is when another police agency files charges on a related crime stemming from the same incident. (Car stolen in King County, but suspect arrested out of the stolen car in Bellevue. Bellevue P.D. charges the suspect with possession of the stolen car. We close the stolen car case "exceptional.")

Unfounded:

Cases are closed as "unfounded" when the investigation reveals that no crime has been committed. An example would be the report of a theft by one party that is determined to be a false report by interviewing other independent witnesses

Administrative Clearance:

This clearance is used primarily to close non-criminal police investigations like found property. For instance, if a citizen finds and turns over to police a wallet. Investigation reveals who the owner of the wallet is and the item is returned to that person.

Inactive:

This category is used when all investigative leads are exhausted and the case can not be closed by any of the above classifications.

Domestic Violence

Domestic Violence is a subcategory to other crimes. Virtually any crime can be classified as domestic violence. In the State of Washington, Domestic Violence is defined as a crime of violence against the person or property of a spouse, former spouse, persons related by blood or marriage, persons who have a child in common, former/current roommates, persons who have or had a dating relationship, and persons related to the suspect by the parent-child (biological or legal) relationship. In some cases, the age of the victim or suspect may determine whether or not the legal definition above is met.

Part II Offenses

This category includes all other crime classifications outside those defined as Part I. Crimes include other assaults (simple), forgery and counterfeiting, fraud, embezzlement, stolen property (buying, receiving and/or possessing), vandalism, weapons (carrying, possessing, etc.), prostitution and commercialized vice, sex offenses (except forcible rape, prostitution or commercial vice...i.e. statutory rape, indecent exposure, etc.), drug violations, gambling, offenses against the family and children, driving under the influence, liquor violations, drunkenness, disorderly conduct, etc.
